Paa Medjayu "The Protectors"

Golden Fly Of Valor

The Three Flies represents a custom as far back as the 18th Dynasty where the supreme commander of the army present to his most courageous soldiers with this pendants in the form of three flies for their valor on the battlefield.

Note: You can clearly see The Golden Fly of Valor Symbol on the Aswud Mir (Black Pyramid), above, along with the Feather of MA'AT on the Capstone.

The flies on a gold chain were found in Queen Ah-hotep Tome offered to the queen by her sons, the Pharaohs Ka Mus and Ah Mus. The significance of flies is best known during the New Kingdom, perhaps, because of flies apparent qualities of persistence in the face of opposition.

We must keep in mind that we are still fighting a battle for our Supreme Commander and Master Teacher's freedom. Therefore, unwavering tenacity is needed in this battle. It is also imperative that we realize that psychological warfare is continually being waged.

We as Paa Medjayu are required to demonstrate courage and valor in our duties as providers and protectors of our great tribe.

PAA Medjayu

What is the Paa Medjayu? In our own language given to us by our Master Teacher and Savior, Nazdir: Amunnub ReAkh Ptah shil Paa Hamutu: Djedi, Paa Medjayu means "The Protectors".

Then and Now

Who are we now? We are the men of the Nu-waupian Tribe that have come together for the purpose of providing and protecting our tribe. This is a huge responsibility considering the situation of the world and the crisis of the recession. It is becoming imperative that we as Men, brothers, fathers, and husbands realize that protection is a major concern. It is our duty to restore our family to the heights of glory and pride which was and still is being demonstrated by our Master Teacher, Nazdir: Amunnub ReAkh Ptah. We understand that this requires a lot of hard work; nevertheless, we are willing and able to get the job done.

By Ah Mus Saw Atum Re Raahubaat Dear Reader: This is the Emblem (above) which was designed by Our Beloved Master Teacher and given to me, Captain Ah Mus Saw Atum Re, for The Paa Medjayu in his letter to me. It does have a significant meaning, I was surprised to learn its meaning.

The Feather of Ma'at represents our Mother Maat, The Nazdirt of Truth and Justice which I, interpreted as we, of Paa Medjayu must exert truth and justice in performing our duties as Protector of our tribe.

Feather Of MA'AT

We are seeking all committed, dedicated, and disciplined men of this Nuwaupian Tribe who are willing to assist. Captain Ah Mus Saw Atum-Re has been traveling across the United States reaching out and selecting brothers of the Nuwaupian Tribe to move forward in a positive direction. His actions have increased tribal pride, motivation, and the self-determination needed in the brotherhood. We have no time to lose; there is so much work to be done. Everyone has a purpose and can assist. Being providers and protectors of this tribe means utilizing what skills you possess as an individual and putting them to use in a collective manner. To join in and get involved seek out the brothers in your area. Don't miss out; we are on the move!

Paa Medjayu "The Protectors"

The Golden Fly of Valor was awarded by the Pharaoh to military leaders who distinguished themselves in battle. Although generals might be represented in stone carvings, commemorating battles meant to preserve the event for all time. The Gold of Valor was an honor that could be worn to show his peers and other Egyptians his proven worth in combat. As such, it was a predecessor to modern medals, dating back to at least 1400 BCE.

It must be remembered that, at this time, warfare was still relatively primitive. Good leadership meant leading from the front, even if you were an Egyptian General!

The Golden Fly of Valor

was a necklace, with three pendants in the shape of flies. The award was made up of about a half-pound of gold, making it one of the most valuable military decorations as well as the most ancient. The Egyptians represent what was probably the greatest of the ancient civilizations. While the Greeks were just primitive tribesmen and the inhabitants of Britain still sacrificing virgins to bushes, the Egyptians were creating monuments like the Pyramids, establishing trade with Mesopotamia, and exploring the African continent west to the Atlantic Ocean and south to the Indian Ocean. Egypt also knew how to wage war, and it is not surprising, then, that they established the first military decoration known to history:

The Golden Fly of Valor.

Of the most famous specimens of jewelry is the Golden Fly of Valour, also known as The Order of the Golden Fly. It was a fly-shaped pendant, which was mostly made of gold, even though some silver examples have been found.

Nicholson 1995: 101. The author assumes that the fly was used as this word, as it is just like the determined enemy; no matter how much it is shooed away, it comes back, and one's exasperation with a bothersome fly is often expressed in a sound similar to a fly. These have made the author suppose that the fly was associated with the military because of its determination as the enemy, as well as the fly's tendency to hang around battlefields where blood is being shed. Especially battlefields, wherein, dead carcasses rot in the sun. Consider, also, the bothersome and stinging Horsefly which can drive even horses, steeds of war, into distraction and even a routing stampede in full disarray!

The Medjayu can be traced back to Ancient Egypt and Sudan. The Medjayu was a police force consistent of African tribes, such as the Beja, Hadendawa tribe which according to Roper (1930) means "Lion clan/Children of the Lioness". Their elaborate hairdressing gained them the name of Fuzzy-wuzzies among the British troops (this was likely the inspiration for Rudyard Kipling's poem, "Fuzzy Wuzzy".) They earned an unenviable reputation during the wars by their hideous mutilations of the dead on the battlefields. The Medjayu served and protected the Pharaoh and can be traced back to the old kingdom of Egypt as well as the New Kingdom of Egypt. They were Aha-u "warriors" that assisted various Pharaohs, most notably Kamose and Ahmose, during the so called 18th Dynasty. During this time the Heka Khasut "Hyksos" had invaded our land of Egypt and sought to take it over by force with no regards to life or law. The Medjayu was the force that ousted the Hyksos out of Egypt across the hot burning sands back into the mountainous regions of Europe.

The name Medjayu is also spelled as: Medjay, medjai, ma-zoi, and in the Egyptian Hieroglyphs it was transcribed as "Mda.y from mdA" according to Erman & Grapow, Wörterbuch der ägyptischen Sprache, 2, 186.1-2. Now when you read the word "Mda.y", it just so happens that you have the word "Mayday". The word "mayday" is used to signal a life-threatening emergency by many groups, such as police forces (*note: the Medjayu were the police force of Ancient Egypt), pilots, firefighters, and transportation organizations.

"The True Mahdi"

"In 1845 A.D. a Nubian, Egyptian man was born, who was called

'Al Mahdi Muhammad Ahmad.' As you know, Al Mahdi was of the 'Bija (Beja) Tribe,' of Dongola Nubia. A True Egyptian, keeper of the secrets as a Sufi initiate, after the order of 'the son's of the green light,' (S.G.L.). The Mahdi was not a Sudanese by birth, but a Nubian Egyptian from Egypt of the 'Beja' tribe, also spelled 'Bija' and known as the Fuzzy Wuzzies, who are the pure descendants of the tribe of Hadendawa who mixed in with the Tribe of Judah.

Paa Medjayu

Mayday is an emergency code word used internationally as a distress signal in voice procedure radio communications. It derives from the French venez m'aider, meaning 'come help me'. Now, keep in mind that the Medjayu was called upon from Sudan to Help and assist their Egyptian brethren that were being invaded and attacked by the Hyksos in the South. Pure logic, reasoning, tone/phonetics prove that the word 'Mayday' actually traces back to 'Medjayu'. The distress signal or call 'mayday' was in actuality the Medjay receiving a distress call for help from their Egyptian family in the South. Often times many writers have tried to separate the Sudanese from the Original Egyptians, however they are the same people. The words Sudan and Egypt both mean "Black"! And, there are actually more Pyramids in Sudan, Africa than in Egypt Africa! We must make this point because many African Americans still don't realize that EGYPT is in AFRICA! This is why our Master Teacher has definitely blessed Us by educating us in The ANCIENT EGYPTIAN ORDER (A.E.O.) and re-connecting Us with our Ancient Egyptian Ancestors of Tamare (also known as Kemet).

The call is always given three times in a row ("Mayday Mayday Mayday") to prevent mistaking it for some similar-sounding phrase under noisy conditions, and to distinguish an actual Mayday call from a message about a Mayday call.

An example of a more modern account of the Medjayu battling the Hyksos can be seen in the battles of "The Mahdi, Muhammad Ahmad" of Africa against the British, indo-Egyptians, Turks. Keep in mind, Islam was a religion that invaded Africa, and Muhammad Ahmad was a convert to an invaders religion. Ancient Egypt is the source of all world religions.

"Islam, Judaism, and Christianity all come from Egypt and was changed, updated, to suite their own people. In the case of Islam, a Arabian religion to Indo-Arabs mixed, they invaded Africa spreading it to us. This is how Al Mahdi of Sudan got it. He was a true Nubian by birth, blood, and seed. That would make him a Egyptian a Hut-Ka-Ptah; the word the Greeks changed to Aiguptos so we have no need of their way of life, it's not ours."

(Quoted from 7-27-2007 letter from Paa Nazdir)

A newer term of "Medjayu" refers to a division of ancient Egypt's police during its 18th Dynasty (a part of New Kingdom). The Medjayu were, also, well known in the Egyptian Army Known rulers, in the History of Egypt, for the Eighteenth Dynasty. The New Kingdom period of Egyptian history is the period between the 16th century BC and the 11th century BC, covering the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth dynasty of Egypt. Army (From Latin armata (act of arming) via Old French army can, in some countries, refer to any armed force. Some very important tasks were overseen by Medjayu officers. They were instrumental in the protection of Thebes and the royal complex at Deir al-Madinah. Thebes For the ancient capital of Boeotia, see Thebes, Greece.. Deir al-Madinah is the Arabic name of an Ancient Egyptian village that was home to the artisans who built the temples and tombs ordered by the pharaohs and other dignitaries during the New Kingdom period (18th to 20th dynasties) in the Valley of the Kings.

PAA MEDJAYU IS THE PRESENT DAY RESTORATION OF THE TRUE NUWAUPIAN BROTHERHOOD

By Neb Qasum Re

Lieutenant of Information

First of all, I want to thank our Beloved Master Teacher, Dr. Malachi Z. York, for his priceless gift of Divine Guidance and Supreme Wisdom that he has selfishly bestowed upon, not only my family and myself, but hundreds of thousands of other families throughout the planet Earth.

Secondly, I would like to thank Captain Ah Mus Saw Atum Re, Commander of the PAA MEDJAYU, for his appointment of my son and myself to the position of Lieutenants in the New York area. We pray that We live up to the duties and requirements of the officeship and prove to be worthy of the trust afforded us. HOTEP (Peace)

They continued to serve in this capacity well into the reign of Pharaoh Rameses IV (about 1152-1144 B.C.E.), during which time they accompanied an expedition into the Wadi Hammamat.

Nubia: Nubians in Egypt

The evidence for Nubians in Egypt may be divided into written sources and archaeological record. The human remains from the latter would provide the most direct or primary sources, but they have not been analyzed in numbers or methods suitable for demographic studies.

The classic Middle Egyptian phase of the Egyptian language provides evidence for Egyptian attitudes to the inhabitants of lands immediately south of Egypt. There seems to have been two main words used, Nehesy (nHsy) for inhabitants of the river valley, and Medjay (mDAy) for a group or groups from the deserts east of the Nubian Nile Valley. This indicates the view from Egypt, as mediated through language. It is possible that it represents a simplifying generalization for a more complex linguistic and ethnic map of Nubia.

The evidence for Nubians living in Middle Kingdom Egypt is open to several interpretations. The name Nehesy - 'Nubian' appears several times. Does it refer to a Nubian, either born in Egypt or someone who changed his or her foreign name? Was it just a 'fashion' to call somebody 'Nubian' or was the child darker-skinned than usual so that the parents decided to give him that name? What does darker skin mean? This question leads to the modern debate over race in ancient Egypt.

Dark skinned people are sometimes depicted in Middle Kingdom art. It is again very difficult to draw any conclusion from this. It seems almost impossible to decide whether these were Nubians or whether the dark skin is chosen for other reasons ('rebirth'). Further research is needed, with a comprehensive catalogue illustrated in colour for all examples of each period. For the Second Intermediate Period there is good evidence, from material culture, that inhabitants from the Nubian eastern desert settled in Egypt (pan-graves).

The Mahdi was called out of Egypt to help his Sudanese relatives to fight against the British army. So, he lived there and was known as a Sudanese. In fact, all those in that country are called Sudanese.

People must remember that Egypt was invaded by the Indo-Arabs and the Euro-Berbers in the 6th and 7th century. Pushing out the black Egyptians to North and South Africa, they murdered, mutilated, raped and killed many Black Egyptians, then suppressed them. This was called the 'Arab Invasion.'

The results of the Arab invasion caused the original inhabitants of Egypt to shield or hide their true way of life. They shunned their cultural background, and like us 'Ansaar's', they used Islam as their veil, while secretly they still practiced their Egyptian old ways.

Let's thank the Mahdi for re-establishing the old ways of the Egyptians, and keeping the true ancient Egyptians language,

Nuwaupic, alive. Every July 4th, in the western world, we celebrate the return of our true way of life, and thank him for being a role model to his great grandson, Amunnubi Reakhptah (our Savior), who is raising Egypt in the West. Pictured above is The Mahdi's family lineage to his Great, Great Grandson "Dr. Malachi Z. York"

a.k.a. Amun Nubi ReAkh Ptah , also, popularly known spiritually
as Imaam Issa Al-Haadi Al-Madhi.

Today Dr. Malachi Z. York seeks to be repatriated to Africa.

In 1999 he was officially granted
Citizenship to The Republic of Liberia, West Africa. He is a Naturalized Citizen of Liberia and has Diplomatic status as a Counsel General of Liberia.

Key Of Life

The Beja Hendendowa were given the nickname, “Fuzzy Wuzzy”, by the European invaders, The British as almost a pet name, which was also a deliberate attempt to make the African Warriors who were worthy and skilled Aha-u “Fighting Warriors” seem less awesome, less terrible, since it was quickly found out that: “without a doubt, Africans are the most fierce, brave, daring and unmerciful race of fighting men in the world”

From 'Fuzzy Wuzzy', one of Rudyard Kipling's Barrack Room Ballad Poems, written in 1918. The poem is in the voice of an unsophisticated British soldier and expresses admiration rather than contempt, although expressed in terms that sound patronizing to-day.

Fuzzy-Wuzzy Poem

By Rudyard Kipling

(Sudan Expeditionary Force)

We've fought with many men acrost the seas,
An' some of 'em was brave
an' some was not: The Paythan an' the Zulu an'
Burmese; But the Fuzzy
was the finest o' the lot.
We never got a ha'porth's
change of 'im: 'E squatted in the scrub an' 'ocked our
'orses, 'E cut our sentries
up at Suakim, An' 'e
played the cat an' banjo
with our forces. So 'ere's to you, Fuzzy-Wuzzy, at
your 'ome in the Sudan;
You're a pore benighted
'eathen but a first-class
fightin' man; We gives you your certificate, an' if you want it signed We'll come
an' 'ave a romp with you
whenever you're inclined.

We took our chanst among the Khyber 'ills, The Boers knocked us silly at a mile, The Burman give us Irriwaddy chills, An' a Zulu impi dished us up in style: But all we ever got from such as they Was pop to what the Fuzzy made us swaller; We 'eld our bloomin' own, the papers say, But man for man the Fuzzy knocked us 'oller. Then 'ere's to you, Fuzzy-Wuzzy, an' the missis and the kid; Our orders was to break you, an' of course we went an' did. We sloshed you with Martinis, an' it wasn't 'ardly fair; But for all the odds agin' you, Fuzzy-Wuz, you broke the square.” (End Quote)

Beja is divided to 5 main branches- Hadendawa, Beniamier, Amarar, Ababda, and Halanga. They are famous as good sword and knife makers and, also, by special ritual dance with swords. They excel as Aha-u (Fighting Warriors). Paa Medjayu who went to Egypt and helped The Pharaoh to drive out the Invading Hyksos from along The Nile. They are, also, called “Fuzzy Wuzzies”.
